Your Excellency, Most Reverend Bishop Zuroweste:

The senior class of Cathedral High School, mindful of your interest in our temporal and spiritual welfare, wish to signify by these pages that your concern for us has been gratefully accepted.

Dedicating this book to our Blessed Mother, we wish to announce publicly our devotion to her — a devotion awakened at our Mother's knee, enlivened in the halls of our Catholic elementary schools and rendered fruitful at Cathedral.

Four years under the tutelage of the Brothers of Mary have made us cognizant of our duties to God and our neighbor. We feel that, under their guidance, we have been prepared to face the vicissitudes of life in a Christian manner.

We thank you for having made possible our education in Catholic schools. We hope that with the years we may grow in stature and grace so completely that, years hence, the Church and our country may point to us with pride and say, there go Cathedral men!"

Gratefully yours,
The Seniors.

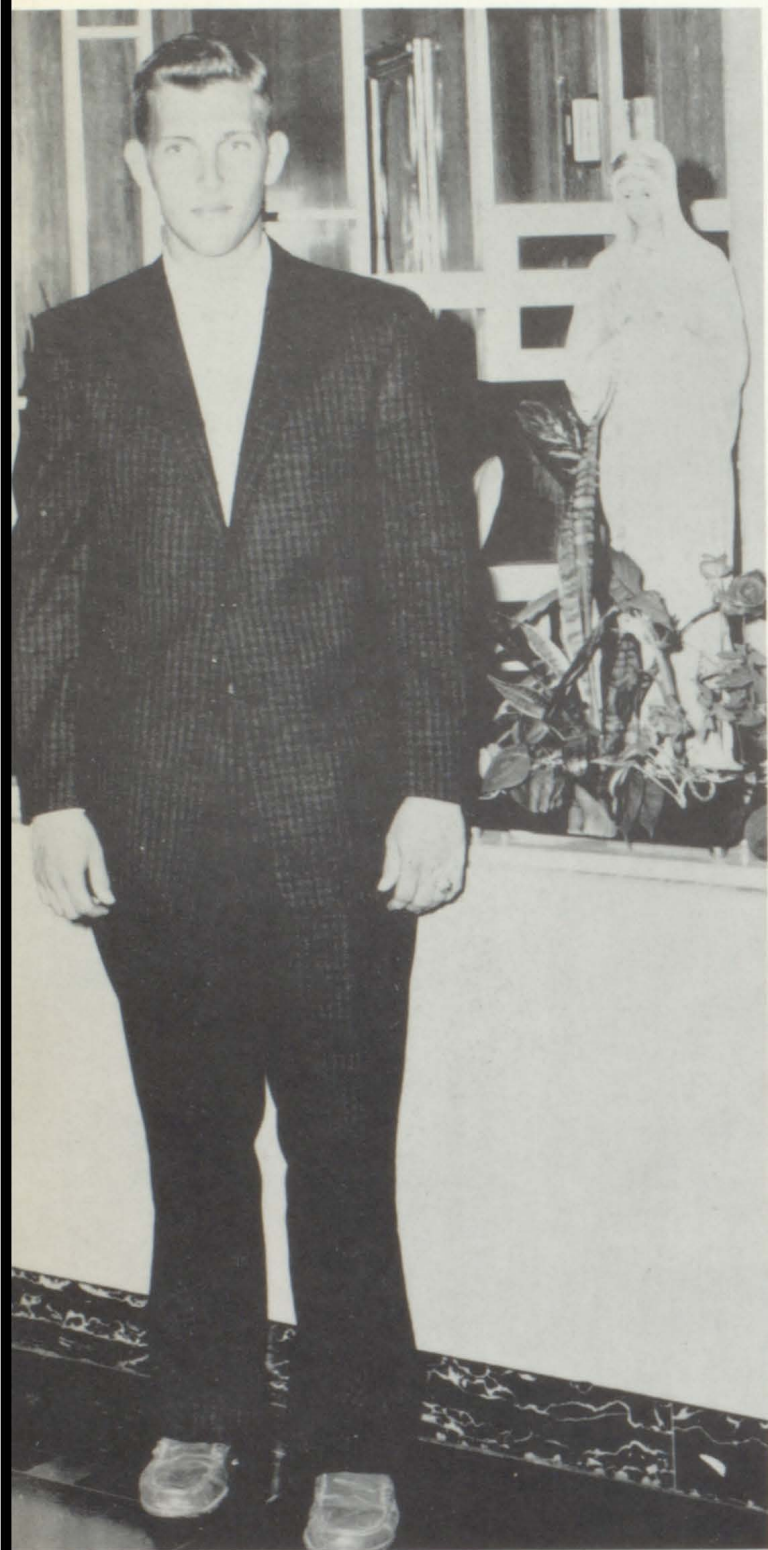

DEDICATION

GOD

To Thee, O holy Mary, my glorious Queen; to thy blessed trust and special charge and to the bosom of thy mercy, this day and every day, and at the hour of my death, I commend myself, my soul and my body. To thee I commit all my hope and my consolation, my distresses and my miseries, my life and the end thereof, that through thy most holy intercession and through thy merits, all my actions may be directed and disposed according to thy will and that of thy Divine Son.

CRUSADER OF THE YEAR

Among these memoirs none can hold more attraction than the enviable exploits of the Man of the Year, Jack Schrand, whose picture on this page is evidence of four years well-spent in his alma mater.

For God and country may his life be spent with the same verve and enthusiasm that characterized his years at Cathedral.

WHEN I WAS A CHILD, I SPOKE AS A CHILD . . .

The theme of this annual is GROWTH. We believe that physically and intellectually as well as spiritually the theme has been developing in our lives. We believe, too, that it is pictorially and graphically presented in these pages. We hope that with the closing of this book, as with that of the book of time, we shall behold our growth reaching maturity in eternity.

In going to Cathedral our aim is to obtain an education. This education has three forms, these being intellectual, spiritual, and physical.

The above Fathers have taken on the rigorous job of teaching religion to us. They explain the value and necessity of religion and also how it fits in everyday life. Through their diligent labors we learn to cope with the many spiritually trying encounters which we meet every day.

For young men of the modern world this aspect of education which the Fathers offer is probably more important than any other, because our ultimate aim in life is to obtain Heaven and only through instruction can we learn more about God, thereby defeating the temptations of the Devil. The results of their labor can be seen in the fine young men that CHS has the reputation of turning out every year.

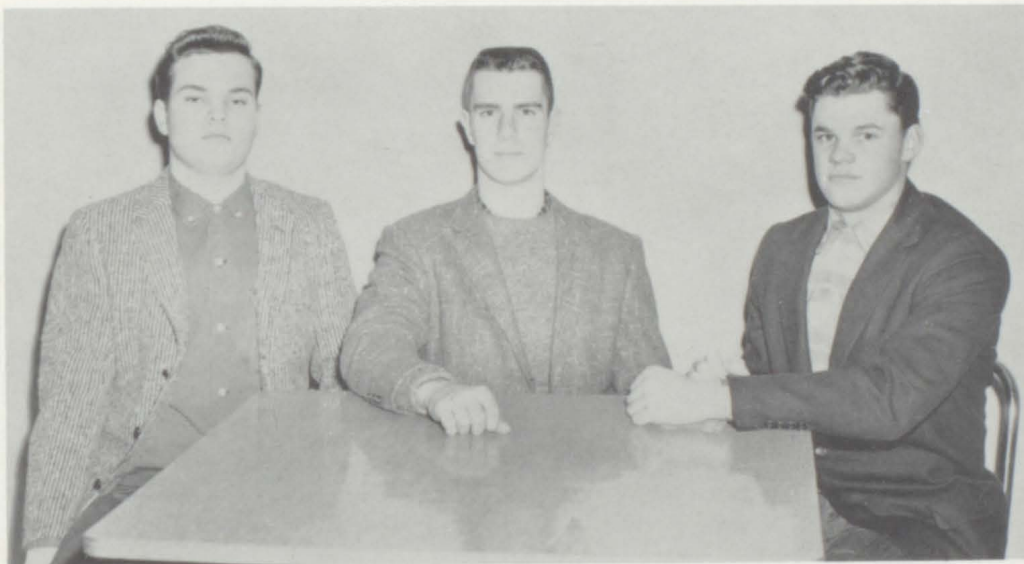

These learned men have fathered us through four years of spiritual training and we thank them for giving us this cherished opportunity.

Fathers, benefactors and old graduates get together once a month for a regular meeting of the Fathers, Friends, and Alumni Club of Cathedral High.

Officers of the group include: Edward Yoch, president; Paul Hoeffken, vice-president; Louis Shively, secretary; and Paul Flach, treasurer. As in every successful organization, committees and committee chairmen play an important role in the group's functions. The F.F.A. has four such committees: Ways and Means, Mr. Cletus Ferguson; Athletic, Mr. Leslie Cole; Social, Irvin Jerger; and Publicity, Robert J. Welzbacher.

EDITORS

Left, John Speaker and, right, Ken Weilbacher took care of the distribution of the school paper without a slip and of taking the needed pictures for the paper.

CREDIT UNION OFFICERS

CREDIT UNION OFFICERS — Front Row: Ted Yoch, Jan Bartel, and Terry Andres. Second Row: Cletus Thouvenot, Bob Welzbacher, Bob Battaglia, Joe Minor, John McNerny, and Richard Waigand.

Begun in April, 1951, due largely to the efforts of Miss Rose Nevenner, Miss Marcella Walker, Mr. H. E. Schweizer, and Brother Michael Brangan, its present moderator, the C.H.S. Credit Union has enjoyed eight years of successful activity. First of its kind in the United States, the Cathedral Credit Union became the forerunner of the many high school credit unions which now dot the map. First officers of the pioneer undertaking were Wayne Lanter, President; Charles Beck, Vice-President; and John Fournie, Secretary-Treasurer. Throughout its history, this example of student thrift has never lost money on a loan to a C.H.S. student.

These distinguished women head the Mothers' Club in their many important tasks. This organization not only helps the school financially but also tends to improve relations between families and faculty. By doing so the faculty can better teach and guide the students. The class of '58 - '59 extends warmest thanks for their generous help.

FRESHMAN COMMUNION

SODALITY OF FRESHMAN

CONCERT

Starting with its first parade in September, through the Christmas concert, and its last parade in June, the Cathedral High School Band, directed by Brother Glennon Mertens, has represented CHS with their fine musical talent.

With graduation ceremonies, a galaxy of nine Crusaders stepped from the ranks of the 58 - 59 aggregation, their high school music career terminated.

These nine include: baritone horn, Ed Rust; clarinets, Robert Lorenz, James Schneider, and Mark Schneirs; saxophone, Richard Schoenebeck; drums, Ed Heuman and William Klucker; French horn, Mike Meyer; and trumpet, Terry Andres.

Andres, Lorenz, Meyer, and Rust headed their respective sections. Charles Crass, a junior, led the trombones, while two sophomores, James Fletcher on sax and Don Hagler at flute, paced their groups.

Near the end of last year the band successfully completed the first tour in the School's history. They journeyed to Milwaukee, hosted by the Society of Mary's Don Bosco High. Rooming with band members from Don Bosco, the Crusaders participated in four concerts, toured the Le Blanc music factory and the city of Milwaukee itself. The concerts were given at three high schools: Don Bosco, Marquette, and Perpetual Help.

Last year several musicians attended music camps. Ed Rust went to the Notre Dame camp in South Bend, Indiana, and Tom Schneider played at the Du Quoin, Illinois assembly.

Top on the agenda of major accomplishments this year was the securing of a new band room. At the start of the year the band was still located on the gym stage.

BAND

However, frequent interruptions motivated Brother Glennon to transfer band facilities to the old Cathedral Grade School auditorium. Before the band could play, their acoustical prisms for sound control had to be installed.

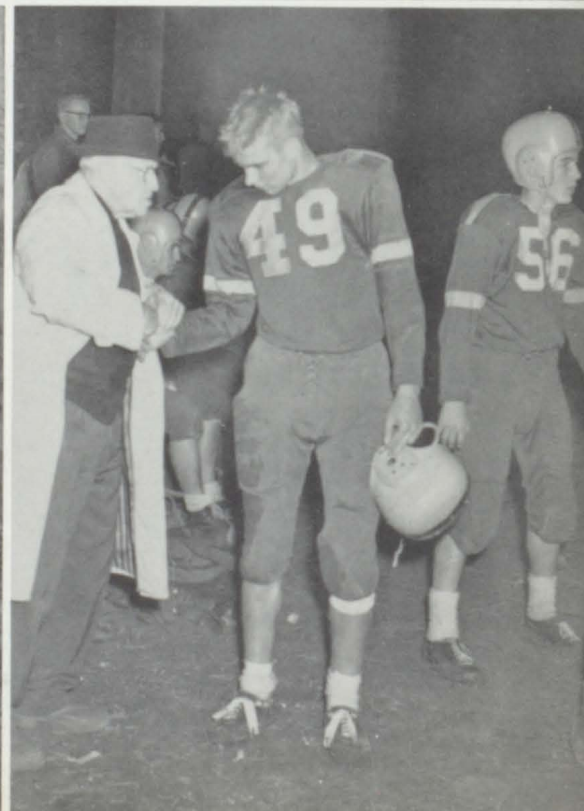

The newly inaugurated CHS dance band gave its first concert on November 15, mixing its own arrangements with song acts from Notre Dame Academy's Choraleers and a group of Crusader vocalists.

On the evening of December 15, Brother Mertens guided the band as they rendered the inaugural concert. The program was highlighted by such selections as: "South Pacific" by Rogers and Hammerstein, "Finlandia" by Sibelius, selections from Verdi's "Aida", Marches, and "Sleigh-ride" by Leroy Anderson.

March 8, they again performed, this time accompanied by the solos of Terry Andres, Bob Lorenz, Don Hagler, Ed Rust, and Charlie Voelinger. A German band, as well as the Notre Dame singers, made an appearance. Featuring the schedule were the Musical Hits: "New Moon" and "Show Boat," and the classical "Sequia," by La Gassey and the "Finale" from "Symphony" in "F" Minor No. 4 by Tchaikovsky.

Finally on May 15, the concert season was closed to the tune of light music sounds, as the band built a popular program around music from the Broadway Musicals with selections from "The King and I," "Oklahoma," and "Brigadoon." Around these foundations were added: "Trumpeter's Lullaby" by Anderson, "Begin the Beguine" by Porter and a number of Marches.

ANNUAL RETREAT

Francis Joseph and Ron Brenfleck explaining to Father Glennon the intricacies of life among the scholars at Cathedral.

On October 9, 10, and 11, 1958, from the podium beneath the north basket of the gymnasium, Father Glennon made alive for us the necessity of staying close to God. In a quiet manner, his voice ringing with the sincerity befitting a priest of God, he led us through the maze of doubts and perplexities within our own minds to the bright light of God's truth and justice. He pointed out the one road to eternal salvation — the stations along which were pre-eminently the sacraments, obedience, charity, purity, and zeal.

His words remain with us, but the sincerity of his prayer, "Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, I place my trust in Thee," has rooted itself within our very souls.

May he read these words bespeaking our esteem and gratitude, and may he a hundred times over repeat in his heart for our benefit, "May they place their trust in Thee, O Lord."

On October 16, 17, 18, 1958, Cathedral High School welcomed two distinguished visitors from Rome. The Crusaders rolled out the red carpet to Very Reverend Joseph Paul Hoffer, Superior General and to Reverend Brother Bernard Schad, Inspector General both of the Society of Mary.

Introduced to the student body by Charles Hasenstab at the general assembly held in the gymnasium on October 18, Father Hoffer expressed his gratification at the progress made by the Crusaders and at their loyalty to the tenets of the Church. He added, to the chagrin of some, that homework is becoming even more imperative than it had been before the ascension of Sputnik.

Brother Bernard Schad, after his introduction by Les Cole, extolled the greatness of our recently deceased Holy Father, Pius XII, expanding particularly on his love of the poor and his unexcelled devotion to the Mother of God.

Both visitors, upon concluding, gave tribute to Brother Glennon Mertens and the Cathedral band upon their fine performance.

PLANNING SPIRITUAL STRATEGY

Brother Bernard Schad, Very Reverend Paul Joseph Hoffer, and Brother Michael Brangan discuss plans for future spiritual development.

SPORTS

These next few pages will be dedicated to our beloved knights of the gridiron who wound up with a 7 - 3 record. Among their many deeds was the winning of the City and the Co-League Championships. They also beat Dupo, champions of their league, and St. Mary's, champions of the C. A. C. Aside from losing an upset to St. Vincent's, the gridgers lost their other two games to two of the top teams in the area, Lincoln and Assumption. They distinguished themselves as an A-One group, knowing the job at hand, and with tremendous spirit and determination, carried the Blue and Gold to a winning season. We salute the Football Team of "59".

Our Biggest Loss of the Season

THE BEST TEAM IN CHS HISTORY

Under the coaching of Brother Adrian Jansan, the Crusaders completed the most successful season in the history of CHS.

Included in the many records broken this year were the winning of 13 straight games and continuing the Catholic League streak to 43 games in a row. It was also the first team in history ever to win a tournament. To do this the Crusaders beat Okawville, Nashville and Dupo in the Christmas Holiday Tournament held in Freeburg.

The team has already won 21 games, with at least one more remaining, which is already a record for the most games won in any season.

"B" TEAM

The Junior Crusaders of this year indicated that the basketball fortunes at Cathedral will continue through the years.

Under the tutelage of Brother Fred Fuchs, the soph quintet had a slow start, but midway in the season started clicking and winning, highlighted by the winning of the Catholic League Crown, and a decisive win over Assumption's "B" team.

"C" TEAM

The "C" team won their share of games against some of the toughest competition in the area. In two of their best games the team downed an unbeaten Chaminade "C" team and Townships "C" team.

The squad always put on a good show and showed great promise for the coming years.

Heavy favorites in the City Championship game, the Crusaders suffered the losses of Art Vollinger, who has a fractured arm, and David Hasensstab, who played only part of the time because of sickness. This proved too much for the Crusaders to withstand. After holding an 18 to 10 lead in the first period, the Crusaders could not hold the Maroons down the next 3 periods and thus came out on the short end of a 72 to 53 score.

STRIKE!

The Cathedral High bowling lanes were kept warm with the hot balls of the C.H.S. keglers. Along with keeping a full schedule of Sunday bowling the league found time for inter-league trophy bowling as well as participating in the St. Mary's High School Bowling Tournament in which they competed against other Catholic High Schools in the area.

The league ended a successful year with a party night and a banquet the following week at which prize money was awarded and newly elected officers for the coming year were announced. Brother Michael Brangan gave a talk at this dinner.

HOMECOMING QUEEN

A new social innovation was made this year with the crowning of a Homecoming Football Game Queen. Shown here is the chosen queen with her maids and their escorts cheering the team on to victory.

After the game the Queen, Maids and their Escorts are celebrating the victory of the team and also of Marylin.

UNDER HER CARE

To the Underclassmen:

Greetings!

Whether you have one, two or three more years to go in high school, put your nose to the grindstone and keep it there; make every day count.

Courses are stepping stones to intellectual success and moral integrity; athletics, an outlet for physical prowess. Activities of all types nurture faster your growth and maturity — take part in them.

Now, if you are not bored to death by the words of "a mighty senior", listen to one word of advice: receive Our Lord in Communion daily.

Putting sweat with their brains and ingenuity these men turned out this year book. They sacrificed many a night's fun to do this, so thanks and congratulations for a wonderful job well done.

This group constitutes the editors, writers, and photographers of the staff. These seniors worked together to successfully present you with this year book. Through working on the year book these men obtained much valuable experience which will undoubtedly help them later in life. Good work.

B E F O R E

"But when I became a man I put away the things of a child." Putting away the things of a child is the task of a man. We have learned that the task is a duty if we are to mature. We think that most of us have matured sufficiently to step into the adult world.

Our limitations during these formative years have been understood by our teachers and parents, and allowances have been made. Our petulance has received manly checks at times, and powerful admonitions have kept us working when play had the greater appeal; and although we did not understand the reasons for some commands we have learned to obey as men.

Through the guidance of our teachers we have hurtled the gamut of courses with success and, now, having those trials behind us, we feel confident of the future.

Thanks to all who have made our education possible. May God bless and keep you.

A F T E R

RECEIVES HIGHEST AWARD

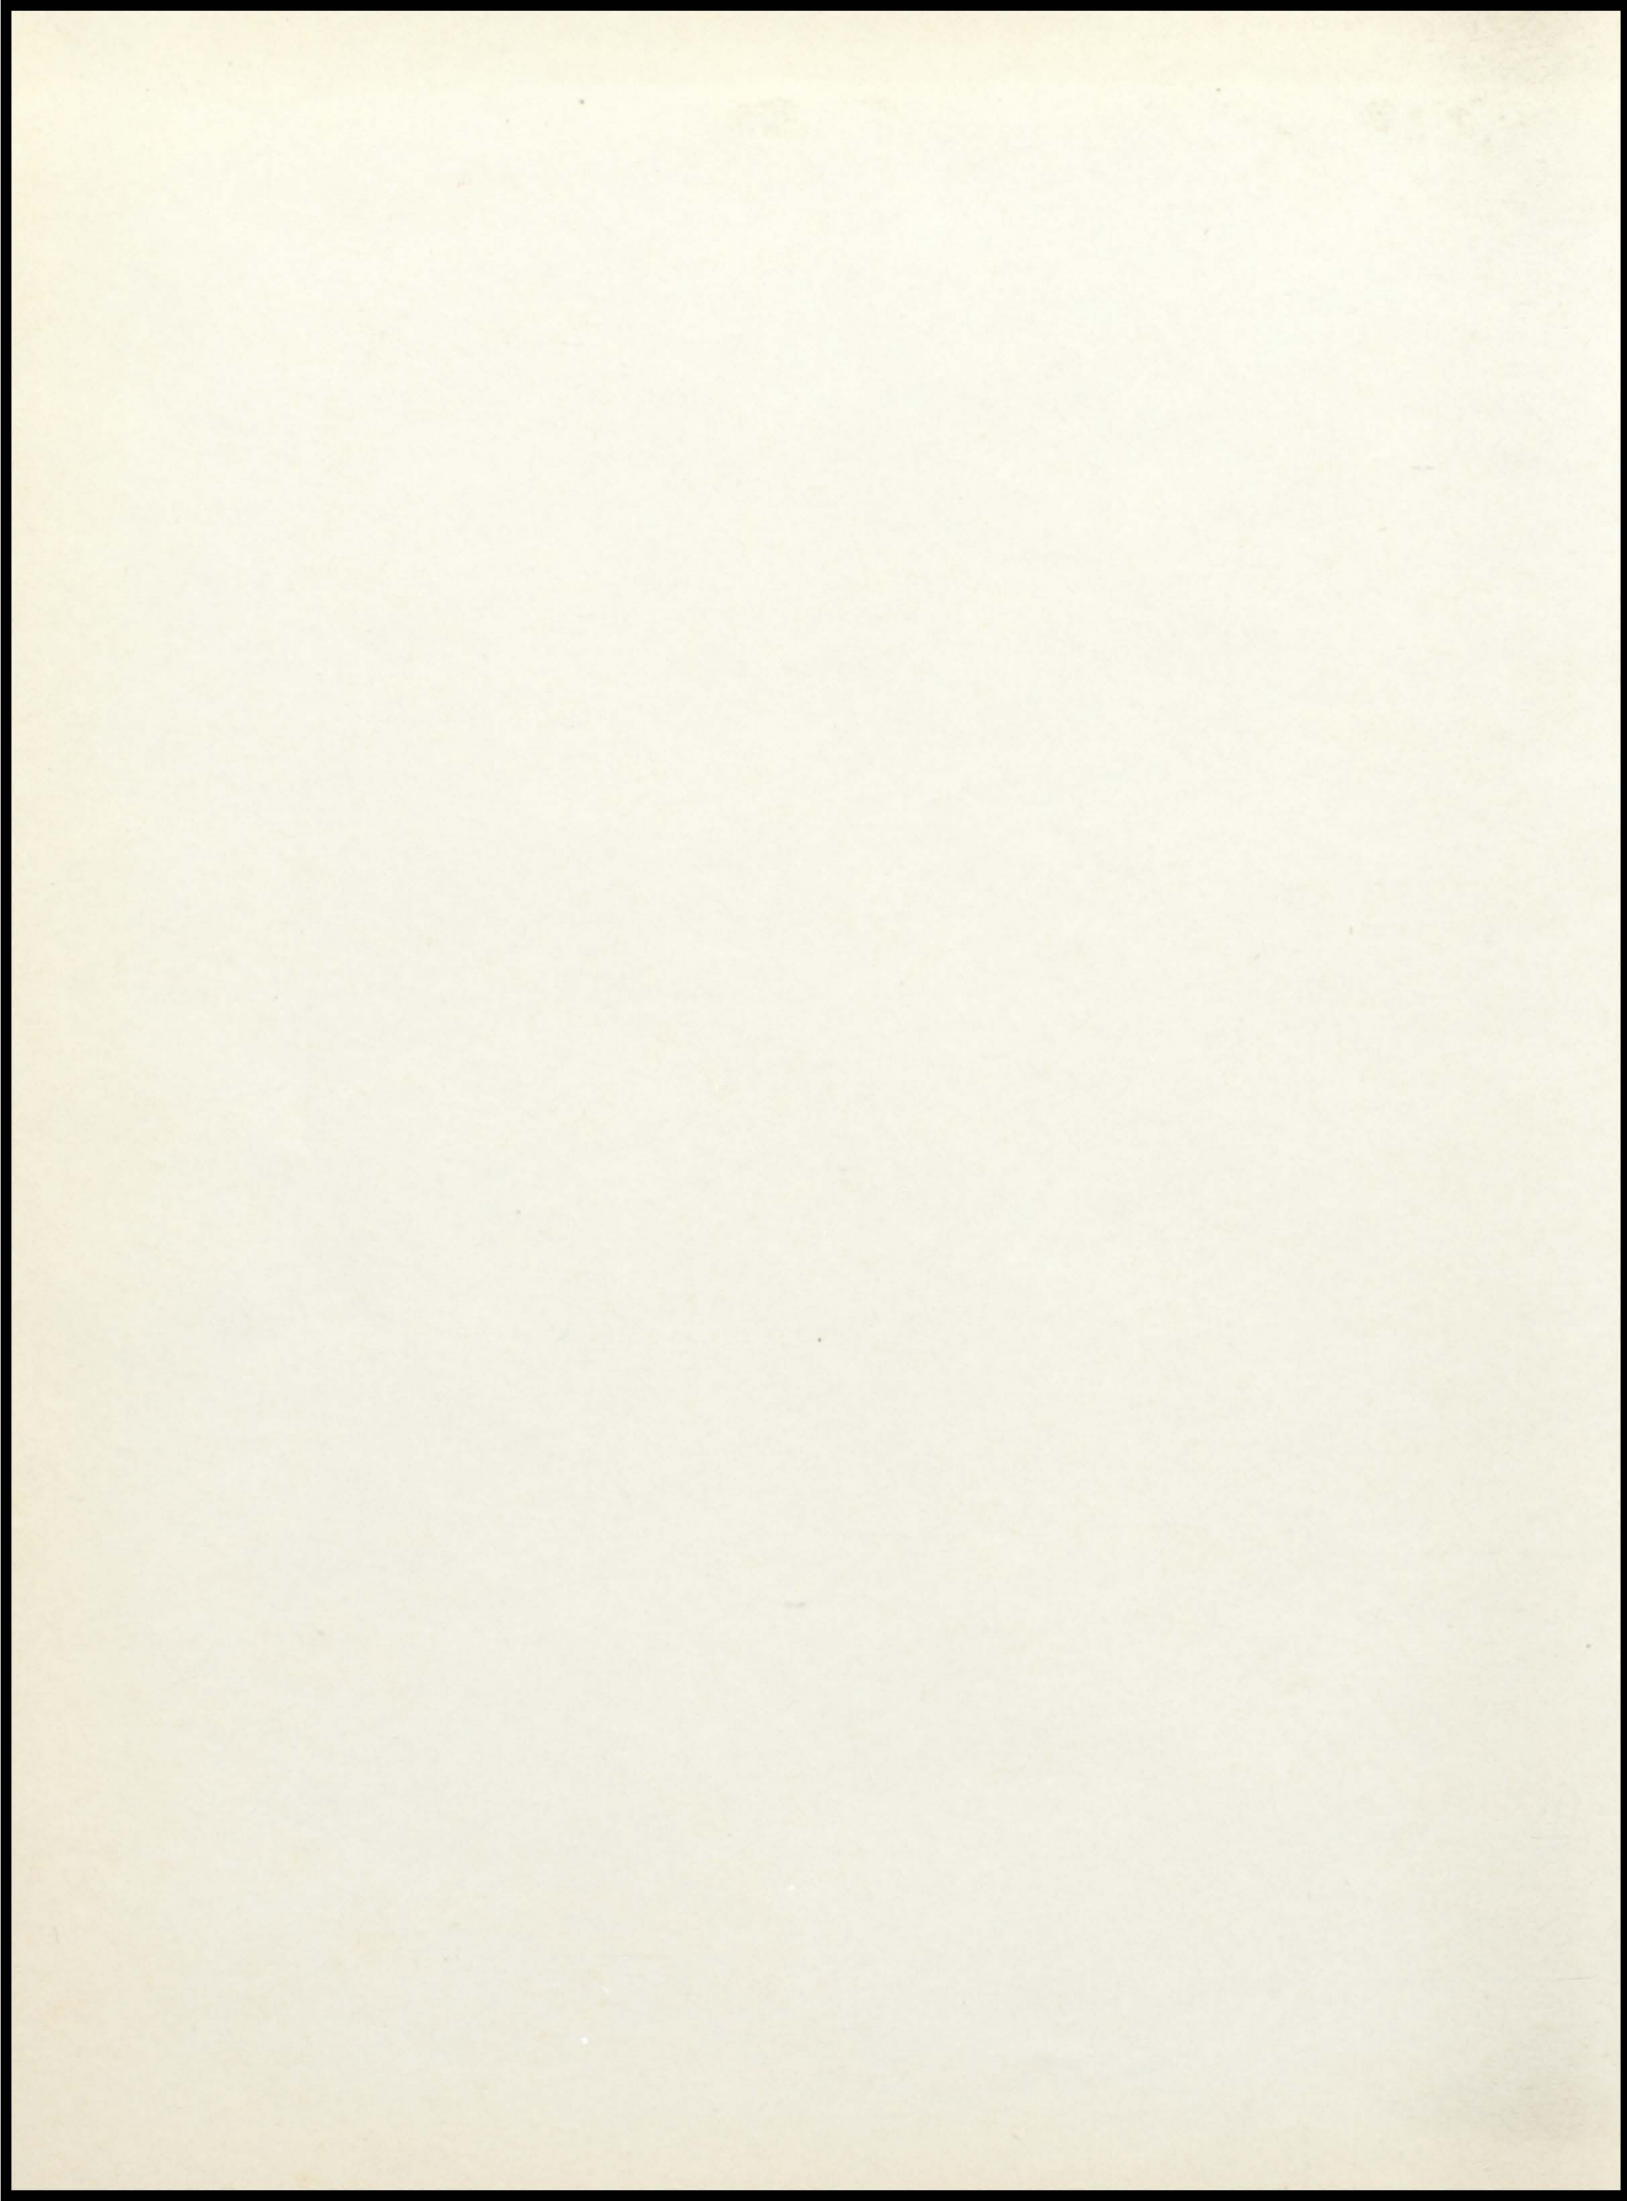

Called by God on April 3, 1959, Kenton Nourse bade farewell to parents, relatives, teachers, and friends and journeyed to God. Highly esteemed by those who were fortunate enough to know him, Kenton quietly performed his work, smilingly bore his sufferings, and gratefully stepped into the joys of his Maker.

As Kenton lived most of his short life in Biloxi, Mississippi, his remains were shipped there to be buried in the Southern Memorial Cemetery.
